Springfield House Fire

Fairfax County Fire and Rescue Department units responded to a house fire in the Springfield area of Fairfax County at approximately 1 a.m., Thursday, December 9, 2004. The two-story, single-family house is located at 6007 Backlick Road.

First arriving units saw fire and smoke coming from several sides of the home, including the basement. The fire also spread to the attic area of the home. The fire was brought under control in approximately 50 minutes. A family of four has been displaced. There were no injuries. The Red Cross is assisting the displaced family.

Damage is estimated at $150,000.

According to fire investigators, an electrical irregularity in the basement caused the fire.
